RE: Tina GRIMM

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

This is a follow-up to Congressman Burton's August 23, 1978 letter to you concering Miss Tina L. Grimm, a U.S. citizen, who is residing in Jonestown, Guyana, with the People's Temple.

In your response of September 12, 1978 (copies enclosed) the Consul stated that he planned to visit the People's Temple Commune within 30 days of that letter and that he would give Miss Grimm the letter sent fro[redacted] Congressman Burton's constituent.

[redacted] has contacted Congressman Burton again asking for a status report after the meeting of the U.S. Consul with Miss Grimm. Was the letter delivered, and did she mention an intent to return to the United States? Any information on this matter would be greatly appreciated by Congressman Burton and his constitutent. Please respond to Mr. Burton's San Francisco office. Thank you.
